

Recruiting event: Get-to-know us and embark on a career in China consulting with an internship at CMG

Envision a career in 'China consulting'?

- Are you an advanced student, graduate, PhD candidate or Postdoc with a background in economics, political economy, finance, political science, public policy, law, technology management or international relations, either in China or with a focus on China?
- Do you have some experience in China related research or analysis, are a fast learner with analytical and fact-based working approach, a curious and inquisitive mind and high diligence on outputs?
- And do you want to hone your China research, analysis and consulting skills during a 3-6 months internship (full time) while providing value-added to diverse European clients?

... apply now for a seat at our recruiting event!

policy · market · strategy

About CMG: www.chinamacro.eu

Get to know CMG

We invite competitive candidates to join our new recruiting event, where we introduce CMG, discuss a case-study, together exchange on the work of applied China research as well as possible career paths in 'China consulting' – for those unable to attend in person, we are organizing a digital session!

Date/time: Thursday, 8 September 2022, 930am CET (physical) + 1215pm (virtual)
Place: CMG office, Engelstrasse 6, 8004 Zürich, Switzerland

How to apply?

- Submit your application (motivation letter of max. 1 page + CV) in one pdf-file to career@chinamacro.eu by 29 August 2022 EOD
- Please also indicate your availability, preferred location and how you could join this recruitment event (in person or digitally)

Application process and next steps

- Qualified candidates will be invited to this recruiting event by early September
- After the event, interested and shortlisted candidates will be invited to follow-up interviews, including a Chinese language test for non-native speakers
- Offers for Q4 2022 are extended from mid-September onwards